- 5.2 The total investment in securities shall not exceed 250% of the Company's net value.
- 5.3 The investment in individual securities shall not exceed 200% of the Company's net value.
6. Professional appraisers and their officers, CPAs, attorneys, and securities underwriters that provide the Company and its subsidiaries with appraisal reports, CPA's opinions, attorney's opinions or underwriter's opinions shall meet the following requirements:
- 6.1. Must not have previously received a final and unappealable sentence to imprisonment for 1 year or longer for a violation of the Act, the Company Act, the Banking Act of the Republic of China, the Insurance Act, the Financial Holding Company Act or the Business Entity Accounting Act or for fraud, breach of trust, embezzlement, forgery of documents or occupational crime. However, this provision does not apply if 3 years have already passed since the completion of service of the sentence, the expiration of the period of a suspended sentence or if a pardon was received.
- 6.2 May not be a related party or de facto related party of any party to the transaction.
- 6.3 If the Company is required to obtain appraisal reports from two or more professional appraisers, the different professional appraisers or appraisal officers may not be related parties or de facto related parties of each other.
- 6.4 The personnel referred to in the preceding paragraph shall comply with the following when issuing an appraisal report or opinion:

6.4.1 They shall prudently assess their own professional capabilities, practical experience, and independence prior to accepting a case.

6.4.2 They shall appropriately plan and execute adequate working procedures in order to produce a conclusion to be used as the basis for issuing the appraisal report or opinion when examining a case. The related working procedures, data collected, and conclusion shall be fully and accurately specified in the case working papers.

6.4.3 They shall undertake an item-by-item evaluation of the comprehensiveness, accuracy, and reasonableness of the sources of data used, the parameters, and the information to be used as the basis for issuing the appraisal report or the opinion.

6.4.4 They shall issue a statement attesting to the professional competence and independence of the personnel who prepared the report or opinion that they have evaluated and found that the information used is reasonable and accurate, and that they have complied with applicable laws and regulations.

7. The procedures for acquiring or disposing of real property, equipment or its right-of-use assets shall include the following matters and comply with the prescribed procedures:

7.1 Evaluation and Operating Procedures

The Company and its subsidiaries acquire or dispose of real property, equipment or its right-of-use assets, which shall be handled in accordance with these Procedures. Evaluation procedures shall include the method of price determination and reference basis, etc. Operating procedures shall include the level of authorization, level, execution unit, and transaction process.

7.2 Transaction Procedures

The acquisition or disposal of assets by the Company and its subsidiaries in accordance with the prescribed procedures or other legal regulations shall be approved by the majority of the Company's Audit Committee and shall be passed by a resolution of the Board of Directors according to Article 17.2 and 17.3 of these Procedures.

7.3 Execution Unit

The Company and its subsidiaries shall obtain approval according to their level of authority, and the transaction shall be carried out by the responsible department and managerial department when acquiring or disposing of real property, equipment or right-of-use assets.

7.4 Evaluation Reports of Real Property, Equipment or Right-of-use Assets

If the transaction amount for the acquisition or disposal of real property or equipment by the Company and its subsidiaries, excluding transactions with domestic government agencies, construction of local land, construction of land leases or the acquisition or disposal of equipment or right-of-use assets for business use, reaches 20% of the Company's paid-in capital or more than NT$300 million, the appraisal report issued by the professional appraiser shall be obtained before the date of occurrence (matters to be included in the appraisal report are set out in Annex I), and shall follow the procedures below:

- 7.4.1 The transaction shall be submitted for approval in advance by the Board of Directors where due to special circumstances it is necessary to give a limited price, specified price, or a special price for use as reference in determining the transaction price; the same procedure shall also be followed whenever there is any subsequent change to the terms and conditions of the transaction.
- 7.4.2 Appraisals from two or more professional appraisers shall be obtained when the transaction amount is NT$ 1 billion or more.
- 7.4.3 If a professional appraiser's appraisal meets any of the following conditions, a CPA shall be retained to handle the matter according to the Statement on Auditing Standards No. 20 published by the Accounting Research and Development Foundation in Taiwan unless the appraisal result of the assets acquired is higher than the transaction amount, and shall express specific opinions on the reasons for the difference and the transaction price:
 - 7.4.3.1 The difference between the appraisal result and the transaction amount is more than 20% of the transaction amount.
 - 7.4.3.2 The discrepancy between the appraisal results of two or more professional appraisers is 10 percent or more of the transaction amount.
- 7.4.4 The difference in the date of reports presented by the professional appraiser and the date of entering into contracts shall not be more than three months. An opinion may still be issued by the original professional appraiser if the publicly announced current value for the same period is used and six months have not yet elapsed.

- 7.4.5 The evidence issued by the court may be substituted for the appraisal report or the CPA's opinion when the Company and its subsidiaries acquire or dispose of assets through court auction procedures.
- 7.5 The calculation of the transaction amounts mentioned above shall be made in accordance with Article 14.2, and "within the preceding year" as used herein refers to the year preceding the date of occurrence of the current transaction. Items for which an appraisal report from a professional appraiser or a CPA's opinion has been obtained need not be counted toward the transaction amount.
- 7.6 Related party transactions, intangible assets or their right-of-use assets or member cards, derivatives transactions, business mergers, divisions, acquisitions or share transfers of the Company and its subsidiaries shall be handled in accordance with the foregoing regulations and Article 9, Article 10, Article 12, Article 13, and other relevant provisions of these Procedures.
8. Procedures for Acquisition or Disposal of Marketable Securities Investment:
- 8.1 Evaluation and Operating Procedures
- The acquisition and disposal of marketable securities of the Company and its subsidiaries shall be handled in accordance with these Procedures.
- 8.2 Determination of trading terms and level of authorization
- 8.2.1 Marketable securities trading in a centralized trading market or business premises of a securities firm shall be decided by the responsible unit according to the market conditions and general financial information of the Company. Transactions of NT$300 million or less shall be approved by the Chairperson of the Board and reported at the next Board of Directors meeting. Transactions over NT$900 million (inclusive) shall be approved by the Company's Audit Committee and at the Board of Directors meeting.
- 8.2.2 The target company's most recent financial statements verified or audited by CPAs shall be obtained and used as the reference for evaluating the transaction price, its net value per share, profitability, and its future development potential for marketable securities trading beyond a centralized trading market or business premises of a securities firm. Transactions below NT$900 million (inclusive) shall be approved by the Chairperson of the Board and reported at the next Board of Directors meeting. Transactions over NT$900 million shall be approved by the Company's Audit Committee and at the Board of Directors meeting.

8.3 Execution Unit

The Company and its subsidiaries shall obtain approval according to their level of authority for investments in marketable securities, and the transaction shall be carried out by the responsible department.

8.4 Obtain Expert Opinion

The Company and its subsidiaries shall, prior to the date of the acquisition or disposal of securities, obtain financial statements of the issuing company for the most recent period certified or reviewed by a CPA for reference in appraising the transaction price. If the dollar amount of the transaction is 20 percent of the Company's paid-in capital or NT$300 million or more, the Company shall engage a CPA prior to the date of occurrence of the event to provide an opinion regarding the reasonableness of the transaction price. If the CPA needs to use the report of an expert as evidence, the CPA shall do so in accordance with the provisions of Statement of Auditing Standards No. 20. published by the ARDF. This requirement does not apply, however, to publicly quoted prices of securities that have an active market or where otherwise provided by regulations of the Financial Supervisory Commission (FSC).

The calculation of the transaction amounts mentioned above shall be made in accordance with Article 14.2, and "within the preceding year" as used herein refers to the year preceding the date of occurrence of the current transaction. Items for which an appraisal report from a professional appraiser or a CPA's opinion has been obtained need not be counted toward the transaction amount.

8.5 Transaction Procedures

The acquisition or disposal of assets by the Company and its subsidiaries in accordance with the prescribed procedures or other legal regulations shall be approved by the majority of the Company's Audit Committee and shall be passed by a resolution of the Board of Directors according to Article 17.2 and 17.3 of these Procedures.

9. Procedures for Related Party Transactions:

9.1 If the transaction amount for any acquisition or disposal of assets by the Company and its subsidiaries from or to a related party reaches 10 percent or more of the Company's total assets, the Company shall ensure that the provisions of Article 7, Article 8, and Article 10 of these Procedures are adopted, the reasonableness of the transaction terms is appraised, and obtain an appraisal report from a professional appraiser or a CPA's opinion in compliance with the provisions.

The calculation of the transaction amounts referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be made in accordance with 14.2 of these Procedures, and “within the preceding year” as used herein refers to the year preceding the date of occurrence of the current transaction. Items for which an appraisal report from a professional appraiser or a CPA’s opinion has been obtained need not be counted toward the transaction amount.

In addition to legal formalities, the de facto relationship shall also be considered when judging whether a transaction counterparty is a related party.

9.2 Evaluation and Operating Procedures

If the Company and its subsidiaries intend to acquire or dispose of real property to a related party or if it intends to acquire or dispose of assets other than real property to a related party, and the transaction amount either reaches 20 percent or more of paid-in capital, 10 percent or more of the company’s total assets or NT$300 million or more, except in the trading of government bonds, bonds under re-purchase and re-sale agreements or the subscription or redemption of money market funds issued by domestic securities investment trust enterprises, the Company may not proceed to enter into a transaction contract or make a payment until the following matters have been recognized by the Company’s Audit Committee and approved by the Board of Directors:

- 9.2.1 The purpose, the necessity, and the anticipated benefits of the acquisition or the disposal of assets.
- 9.2.2 The reason for selecting the related party as a trading counterparty.
- 9.2.3 Information regarding the appraisal of the reasonableness of the preliminary transaction terms as per Article 3.1 and Article 3.4 for the acquisition of real property or right-of-use assets from a related party.
- 9.2.4 The acquisition date and price by the related party, the trading counterparty, and the relationship with the trading counterparty and the Company.
- 9.2.5 Monthly cash forecast for the year commencing from the anticipated month of contract signing, and the evaluation of the necessity of the transaction and rationality for the application of funds.
- 9.2.6 Appraisal reports from professional appraisers or the CPA’s opinions in compliance with Article 7.4.
- 9.2.7 Restrictive terms and other important covenants associated with the transaction.

The calculation of the transaction amounts mentioned above shall be done in accordance with Article 14.2 of the Procedures, and "within the preceding year" as used herein refers to the year preceding the date of occurrence of the current transaction. Items that have been recognized by the Company's Audit Committee and approved by the Board of Directors need not be counted toward the transaction amount.

With respect to the types of transactions listed below, when to be conducted between the Company and its subsidiaries or between its subsidiaries (or sub-subsidiaries) in which it directly or indirectly holds 100 percent of the issued shares or authorized capital, the Company's Board of Directors may, pursuant to Article 7.1, delegate the Chairperson of the Board to decide such matters when the transaction is within a certain amount, and have the decisions subsequently submitted to and ratified by the Company's next Board of Directors meeting:

9.2.7.1 Acquisition or disposal of equipment or right-of-use assets held for business use.

9.2.7.2 Acquisition or disposal of real property right-of-use assets held for business use.

The above-mentioned amount to be delegated to the Chairperson of the Board should be no more than NT$200 million. [Jason, please check.]

The Company has established the Audit Committee. The transactions shall be approved by the majority of the Audit Committee and passed by a resolution of the Board of Directors according to Article 17.2 and 17.3 of these Procedures. [Jason, wtf is the translation company trying to say here?]

9.3 Evaluate the reasonableness of the transaction costs.

9.3.1 The reasonableness of the transaction costs for the Company's acquisition of a real property or right-of-use assets from a related party shall be evaluated in accordance with the following methodology:

9.3.1.1 It shall be based on the related party's transaction price plus the necessary interest of funds and the cost of the obligation assumed by the buyer in accordance with the law. The "necessary interest on funding" is equal to the weighted average interest rate on borrowing in the year the company purchases the property, provided that it may not be higher than the maximum non-financial industry lending rate announced by the Ministry of Finance.

9.3.1.2 The total loan value appraisal is to be from a financial institution where the related party has previously created a mortgage on the property as security for a loan provided that the actual cumulative amount loaned by the financial institution shall have been 70 percent or more of the financial institution's appraised loan value of the property, and that the period of the loan shall have been 1 year or more. However, this shall not apply if the financial institution is a related party of one of the transaction counterparties.

9.3.2 The transaction costs for the land and the structures may be separately appraised in accordance with either of the means listed in the preceding paragraph if the land and structures within it are combined as a single property purchased or leased in one transaction.

9.3.3 The Company and its subsidiaries shall appraise the cost of the real property or the right-to-use assets in accordance with Article 3.1 and Article 3.2 when acquiring real property or the right-of-use assets from a related party. The Company shall also engage a CPA to verify and provide a specific opinion on the appraisal.

9.3.4 If the related party transactions of the Company and its subsidiaries are evaluated to be lower than the transaction price as per Article 3.1 and Article 3.2, it shall instead be handled in accordance with Article 3.5. However, where the following circumstances exist, objective evidence has been submitted and specific opinions on reasonableness have been obtained from a professional real property appraiser and a CPA have been obtained, this restriction shall not apply:

9.3.4.1 If the related party acquired undeveloped land or leased land for development, it may submit proof of compliance with one of the following conditions:

9.3.4.1.1 The total amount of the undeveloped land value assessed with the method stipulated in the preceding article and the value of the house calculated according to the construction cost plus a reasonable construction profit of the related person exceeds the actual transaction price. The "Reasonable construction profit" shall be deemed as the average gross operating profit margin of the related party's construction division over the most recent 3 years or the gross profit margin for the construction industry for the most recent period as announced by the Ministry of Finance, whichever is lower.

9.3.4.1.2 Completed transactions by unrelated parties within the preceding year involving other floors of the same property, neighboring property or closely valued parcels of land, where the land area and transaction terms are similar after calculation of reasonable price discrepancies in floor or area land prices in accordance with standard property market sale or leasing practices.

9.3.4.2 If the Company and its subsidiaries are to acquire real property or obtain real property right-of-use assets through leasing, the related party shall provide evidence that the terms of the transaction are similar to the terms of completed transactions involving neighboring or closely valued parcels of land of similar size by unrelated parties within the preceding year. Completed transactions involving neighboring or closely valued parcels of land in the preceding paragraph in principle refers to parcels on the same or an adjacent block, and is within a distance of no more than 500 meters or those parcels that are close in publicly announced current value; transactions involving similarly sized parcels in principle refers to transactions completed by unrelated parties for parcels with a land area of no less than 50 percent of the property in the planned transaction; within the preceding year refers to the year preceding the date of occurrence of the acquisition of the real property or obtainment of the right-of-use assets.

9.3.5 If the Company and its subsidiaries are to acquire real property or the right-of-use assets from a related party, and the results of appraisals conducted in accordance with Article 3.1 to Article 3.4 are lower than the transaction price, then the following steps shall be taken:

9.3.5.1 The Company shall set aside a special reserve in accordance with Article 41, paragraph 1 of the Act against the difference between the transaction price of the real property or right-of-use assets and the appraised cost, and it may not be distributed or used for capital increase or issuance of bonus shares.

9.3.5.2 Independent Director members of the Audit Committee shall comply with Article 218 of the Company Act.

9.3.5.3 Actions taken pursuant to Article 3.5.1 and Article 3.5.2 shall be reported to a shareholders' meeting, and the details of the transaction shall be disclosed in the annual report and in any investment prospectus.

9.3.5.4 The Company has set aside a special reserve under the preceding paragraph, and it may not utilize the special reserve until it has recognized a loss on decline in the market value of the assets it purchased or leased at a premium, they have been disposed of, the leasing contract has been terminated, adequate compensation has been made, the status quo ante has been restored or there is other evidence confirming that there was nothing unreasonable about the transaction, and the GSC has given its consent.

9.3.5.5 If the Company is to obtain real property or right-of-use assets from a related party, it shall also comply with Article 3.5.1 to Article 3.5.4 if there is other evidence indicating that the acquisition was not an arms length transaction.

9.3.5.6 If the transaction cost assessed by the subsidiaries as per Article 3.1 to Article 3.4 is lower than the transaction price, the Company shall set aside a special reserve against the difference between the transaction price of the real property or right-of-use assets and the appraised cost.

9.3.6 If the Company is to acquire real property or right-of-use assets from a related party, and it meets one of the following circumstances, the acquisition shall be conducted in accordance with Article 1 and Article 2 governing evaluation and operating procedures. Article 3.1 to Article 3.3 governing the evaluation of the reasonableness of the transaction costs is not applicable.

9.3.6.1 The related party acquired the real property or right-of-use assets through inheritance or as a gift.

9.3.6.2 More than five years has elapsed from the time the related party signed the contract to obtain the real property or right-of-use assets to the signing date for the current transaction.

9.3.6.3 The real estate is acquired through the signing of a joint development contract with the related party through engaging others to build on the company's own land, or through engaging others to build on rented land, etc.

9.3.6.4 The real property right-of-use assets for business use are acquired by the public company with its parent or subsidiaries or by its subsidiaries in which it directly or indirectly holds 100 percent of the issued shares or authorized capital.

10. Procedures for acquiring or disposing of intangible assets or right-of-use assets or membership certificates are as follows:

10.1 Evaluation and Operating Procedures

The acquisition or disposal of intangible assets, the right-of-use asset or the membership certificate by the Company and its subsidiaries shall be conducted in accordance with these Procedures.

10.2 Determination of trading terms and level of authorization

10.2.1 The Company and its subsidiaries in the acquisition or disposal of membership certificates shall refer to a fair market price, determine the transaction conditions and prices, prepare an analysis report, and submit it to the Chairperson of the Board. An amount below 1% of the paid-in capital or NT$6 million shall be submitted to the Chairman of the Board for approval and reported at the Company's next Board of Directors meeting. An amount over NT$6 million shall be approved by the Company's Audit Committee and by the Board of Directors.

10.2.2 The acquisition or disposal of intangible assets or right-of-use assets shall refer to the expert assessment report or the fair market value. The analysis of the trading conditions and the transaction price shall be submitted. An amount less than NT$50 million shall be submitted to the Chairperson of the Board for approval and shall be reported at the next Board of Directors meeting. For transactions exceeding NT$50 million, approval from the Board of Directors shall be obtained prior to execution.

10.3 Execution Unit

The Company and its subsidiaries shall obtain approval according to their level of authority when acquiring or disposing of intangible assets, right-of-use assets or membership certificates, and the transaction shall be carried out by the responsible department and managerial department.

10.4 Expert evaluation report on intangible assets, right-of-use assets or membership certificates

If the Company acquires or disposes of intangible assets, right-of-use assets or memberships, and the transaction amount reaches 20 percent or more of paid-in capital or NT$300 million or more, except in transactions with a domestic government agency, the Company shall engage a certified public accountant prior to the date of occurrence of the event to render an opinion on the reasonableness of the transaction price; the CPA shall comply with the provisions of Statement of Auditing Standards No. 20 published by the ARDF.

10.5 The calculation of the transaction amounts mentioned above shall be made in accordance with Article 14.2, and “within the preceding year” as used herein refers to the year preceding the date of occurrence of the current transaction. Items for which an appraisal report from a professional appraiser or a CPA’s opinion has been obtained need not be counted toward the transaction amount.

10.6 The acquisition or disposal of assets by the Company and its subsidiaries in accordance with the prescribed procedures or other legal regulations shall be approved by the majority of the Company's Audit Committee and shall be passed by a resolution of the Board of Directors according to Article 17.2 and Article 17.3 of these Procedures.

11. Procedures for Acquisition or Disposal of Claims of Financial Institutions

In principle, the Company and its subsidiaries do not engage in the transaction of acquiring or disposing of the creditor’s rights of financial institutions. If they later intend to engage in the transaction of acquiring or disposing of the creditor’s rights of financial institutions, they shall be subject to the approval of the Audit Committee and the approval of the Board of Directors before formulating its evaluation and operational procedures.

12. Procedures for Acquisition or Disposal of Derivatives

12.1 Transaction Principles and Policies

12.1.1 Type of Transaction

12.1.1.1 Derivatives which the Company and its subsidiaries engage in refer to forward contracts, options contracts, futures contracts, leverage contracts or swap contracts, whose value is derived from a specified interest rate, financial instrument price, commodity price, foreign exchange rate, index of prices or rates, credit rating, credit index or other variables; or hybrid contracts combining the above contracts; or hybrid contracts or structured products with embedded derivatives. The term "forward contracts" does not include insurance contracts, performance contracts, after-sales service contracts, long-term leasing contracts or long-term purchase (sales) contracts.

12.1.1.2 Matters relating to bond margin trading shall be handled in accordance with the relevant provisions of these Procedures. Bond transactions with redemption conditions are not applicable to these Procedures.

12.1.2 Operating or Hedging Strategies

Derivatives transactions of the Company and its subsidiaries should focus on hedging of the interest rate, exchange rate, and of derivative risks arising from the Company's business operations. The Company's receivables and payables or assets and liabilities arising from its daily business are hedged on the net position after maturity, amount, and currency offset. Hedging of interest rate and exchange rate risks shall be made for the receivables and payables arising from normal business operations or the net position after offsetting the maturity date, amount, and currency of assets and liabilities.

In addition, hedging of transactions for special purposes arising from business operations shall be reported to the Chairman of the Board for approval.

The procedures for handling foreign exchange derivatives transactions by the Company and its subsidiaries are prepared by the responsible unit and issued after being approved by the Chairperson of the Board. Subsequent amendments thereto shall be effected in the same manner.

12.1.3 Division of Labor

12.1.3.1 The transaction and confirmation officer of a derivative transaction shall be appointed by the Chairperson of the Board. Transaction, confirmation, and settlement officers may not serve concurrently in other positions. The transaction counterparties shall be notified of the appointment and dismissal of the transaction and confirmation officers before the effective dates to safeguard the Company's interests.

12.1.3.2 Authorized Limits of Derivatives

12.1.3.2.1 Authorized limits and levels are as follows:

	Maximum amount of each transaction	Maximum amount for a single day
CEO	USD10 million	USD30 million
Direct Supervisor of the Financial Manager	USD5 million	USD10 million
Financial Manager	USD3 million	USD6 million

12.1.3.2.2 After the completion of each transaction, internal written approval must be obtained in accordance with the following amounts.

	Maximum amount of each transaction
CEO + Direct Supervisor of the Financial Manager	USD10 million
Direct Supervisor of the Financial Manager + Financial Manager	USD5 million

12.1.3.2.3 The authorized transaction limit and the level specified in this article shall be notified in writing to the counterparties to ensure they comply with the Company's supervision and management procedures.

12.1.3.2.4 May formulate strategies for transactions for special purposes, based on forecasted market changes, as needed, but must submit them to the Chairperson of the Board for approval before proceeding.

12.1.3.2.5 Material derivatives transactions shall be approved by the majority of the Company's Audit Committee, and submitted to the Company's Board of Directors for resolution. Article 17.2 and Article 17.3 of these Procedures shall be adopted.

12.1.3.3 Performance Assessment

12.1.3.3.1 Hedging Transaction

12.1.3.3.1.1 Gains and losses generated by transactions of financial derivatives engaged in due to exchange and interest rate costs associated with the Company's accounts shall constitute the basis of performance assessments.

12.1.3.3.1.2 The Company and its subsidiaries evaluate the profit and loss using the monthly evaluation method to fully control and express the evaluation risk of the transaction.

12.1.3.3.2 Transactions for Special Purposes

The actual profit and loss are used as the performance evaluation basis, and the certified public accountants must regularly report the parts to management as reference.

12.1.3.4 Setting of Maximum Transaction Amount and Loss

12.1.3.4.1 Transaction amount

12.1.3.4.1.1 Transaction Limit of Hedging Transactions

Daily hedging transaction amounts shall not exceed the Company's overall net position.

12.1.3.4.1.2 Transactions for Special Purposes

Limited to capital expenditures, corporate bonds, and long-term investments. The actual amount shall be the maximum hedging amount.

12.1.3.4.2 Setting of Maximum Loss

12.1.3.4.2.1 A clear stop-loss exchange rate and interest rate of equivalent to 10% of the amount of the transaction approval order shall be set after establishing a trading position. The stop-loss limit shall be recorded in the transaction approval order, and approved according to the authorized limit table. Market changes shall be closely monitored during the existence of the position. Stop-loss procedures shall be executed once the interest rate or derivatives reach the stop-loss limit.

12.1.3.4.2.2 In principle, for hedging positions with clear trading positions, transactions shall not be terminated in advance as a result of reaching the stop-loss limit.

12.2 Risk Management Measures

12.2.1 Credit Risk Management

The transaction target is limited to the bank or an internationally renowned financial institution with existing business relationships with the Company, and the purpose is for providing professional information. [Jason, please double check.]

12.2.2 Market Risk Management

The Company and its subsidiaries shall manage risk to reduce the impacts from market price fluctuation caused by interest rates, exchange rates or other factors of derivatives. [Jason, please double check.]

12.2.3 Liquidity Risk Management

Trading financial institutions shall possess sufficient information and the ability to trade in any market at any time in order to ensure market liquidity.

12.2.4 Cash Flow Risk Management

The Company shall pay attention to its foreign currency cash flow at all times to ensure sufficient foreign cash flow for settlement and to maintain stability in its working capital needs.

12.2.5 Operational Risk Management

The personnel shall abide by the amount authorized by the Company and operating procedures to avoid operational risks.

12.2.6 Commodity Risk Management

Internal transaction officers shall possess complete and accurate professional knowledge on financial products, and require the bank to fully disclose risks to avoid loss due to misuse of financial products.

12.2.7 Legal Risk Management

Any document signed with a financial institution shall be inspected by the Company's legal department or legal consulting experts prior to official signing to prevent legal risks.

12.2.8 Risk measurement, monitoring, and control personnel shall be assigned to a different department with the transaction, confirmation, and settlement officers, and shall report to the Board of Directors or senior management that is not responsible for the decision-making of trading positions.

12.3 Internal Audit System

12.3.1 The Company's internal auditors shall periodically make a determination of the suitability of internal controls on derivatives of the Company and its subsidiaries, and conduct a monthly audit of how faithfully foreign exchange derivatives trading by the trading department adheres to the procedures for engaging in derivatives trading, analyze its transaction circulation, and prepare an audit report. If any material violation is discovered, the Company's Audit Committee shall be notified in writing.

12.3.2 The Company's internal auditors shall file the auditing report and the implementation status for the annual auditing plans of internal audits to the competent authority before the end of February of the coming year and shall also report on the status of improvements made for any abnormal affairs to the competent authority before the end of May of the coming year.

12.4 Regular Evaluation Methods

12.4.1 The Board of Directors shall authorize senior management personnel for periodic supervision and evaluation on the compliance of foreign exchange derivatives transactions, and whether the risk that it bears is within the extent permitted. If there are any exceptional conditions in the market value assessment report (such as if the holding position has exceeded the limit), countermeasures shall be adopted and reported to the Board of Directors immediately.

12.4.2 Positions held in derivatives transactions shall be assessed at least once a week. Assessments shall be undertaken at least twice a month for hedging trades for business needs. The evaluation report shall be sent to the senior managers delegated by the Board of Directors.

12.5 The supervision and management principles of the Board of Directors when engaging in derivative commodity transactions

12.5.1 The Board of Directors shall appoint high-level supervisors to pay attention to the supervision and control of the risk of derivative commodity trading at any time. The management principles are as follows:

12.5.1.1 Periodically evaluate whether the current risk management measures are appropriate and faithfully conducted in accordance with these Procedures and the procedures for engaging in derivatives trading established by the Company.

12.5.1.2 Supervise the trading and profit and loss situation, and take necessary countermeasures in case of any abnormality, and immediately report it to the Board of Directors; the Board of Directors shall have Independent Directors present and express their opinions.
